

Press Release

Programming for Barnegat Branch April 2009

4/1, 7:00pm, Wednesday

Anime/ Manga Club-

Exchange info and discuss your favorite Manga and Anime series. Bring your own Manga style drawings to give and get tips from others that appreciate Japanese animation. No registration required. This program will be held in the meeting room. For TEENS in Grades 6-12

4/2, 9:15am, Thursday

Internet Basics

Come start your adventure on the Internet. Learn how to find web sites, how to navigate around the World Wide Web and get your feet wet in the on-line world! Register

4/4, 1:00pm, Saturday

Art Reception for Bette Pernal

Admired Bette's work? Stop in and say hello.

4/6, 4/13, 4/20, 4/27, 2:00pm

Movie Mondays

4/6- The Dark Knight 2008

4/13- Milk 2008

4/20- W 2008

4/27- Charlie Wilson's War 2007

4/7, 7:00pm, Tuesday

Poetry: Face of the Soul

Join us and explore an evening of imagery, rhythm and thought with Gemma Forest reading from her selected poems. Gemma is a published poet who also offers a home restaging service. Register

4/8, 10:30am, Wednesday

Toddler Tales

Stories, songs and fingerplays with a gardening theme. Please register. Ages 18-36 months

4/8, 11:30am, Wednesday

PreK Storytime

Join us for stories, songs, and fun with a gardening theme! Please register. Ages 3-5.

4/9, 9:15am, Thursday

Internet II

You've taken the basics? Here's your next step on the road to becoming a pro! We'll learn how to use search engines to find just what you want! Register

4/9, 4/16 2:30-4:00pm, Thursdays

Homework Help

Come do your homework at the library and get help from Sam the teen librarian! Every Thursday while school is in session, Sam will be stationed in the teen zone waiting to help you however she can. There's no reason to register- just walk right in! For grades 6 and up.

4/13, 12:00pm, Monday

Lunch and a Movie

It's National Library Week! Bring your lunch and enjoy Bolt on our big screen. Rated PG.

Registration requested.

4/14,10:30am, Tuesday

Knitting 101 with Aunt Franny

Bring your own needles to this fun group and get clicking with Aunt Fran. All skill levels invited.

4/14, 1:00pm Tuesday

Friends Meeting

Join us for the membership tea. New members always welcomed.

4/14, 2:00pm, Tuesday

Perfect Fifths Release Party

It's finally here! The last volume of Megan McCafferty's Jessica Darling series comes out today. Celebrate by making a Marcus Flutie inspired T-shirt. Space is limited, so please register! Ages 11 and up

4/15, 7:00pm, Wednesday

Teen Advisory Board-

Looking for a fun way to participate in community service? Join the Teen Advisory Board. All teens ages 13-18 are welcome to share ideas on library programs for and by teens, displays, and to suggest new items for purchase

4/16, 2:00pm, Thursday

Worlds Connect @ your library

This year's National Library week theme is Worlds Connect. Come in and make a sun-catcher earth using recycled crayons! Ages 8 and up. Please register.

4/17, 2:00pm, Friday

National Library Week Gaming

Come and celebrate National Library Week in our own way- with an afternoon of open games and snacks! Ages 7-18. No registration required.

4/21, 2:00pm, Tuesday

Book Discussion

Friday Night Knitting Club, Kate Jacobs

The proprietor of a Manhattan yarn shop starts a Friday night knitting group and the members become a support system for each other as they all encounter a variety of difficulties.

4/21, 7:00pm, Tuesday

Plastic Bag Crochet

Celebrate Earth Day and go green by learning how to make a tote bag by crocheting plastic bags together. Participants must know how to crochet and need to bring a crochet hook size N, scissors, and about 20 plastic bags (grocery store, department store, etc.)

Register

4/22, 2:00pm, Wednesday

Free Blood Pressure Screening

Have your blood pressure checked by the Ocean County Health Department.

4/22, 7:00pm, Wednesday

Self Defense for Women & Girls: Don't be a Target

Walter Miller, renowned black belt instructor uses his knowledge from many years of expertise to develop a self-defense program to protect against street attacks and personal assaults using leverage. Ages 12 and up. Register

4/23, 9:15am, Thursday

Internet Basics

Come start your adventure on the Internet. Learn how to find web sites, how to navigate around the World Wide Web and get your feet wet in the on-line world! Register

4/24, 3:30pm, Friday

Tail Waggin' Tutor

Mickey, our tail waggin' tutor, returns to hear your stories! Beginning or struggling readers take turns reading to a registered therapy dog. Bring your favorite book or choose one of ours. (Limited to first six registrants)

4/25, 1:00pm, Saturday

Knitting 101 with Aunt Franny

Bring your own needles and get clicking with Aunt Franny. All skill levels invited.

4/25, 11:00am, Saturday

Genealogy on the Internet

Explore genealogy databases offered by the library including those accessible free of charge from your home. Register

4/29, 6:30-8:30pm, Wednesday

SCORE

Thinking of starting a business? Ask the experts, they are here to help. Register

4/30 9:15am, Thursday

Internet Q&A

You've taken the basics but are full of questions. We'll look for answers together. This class is limited to two students so we can best answer your questions. This is a great opportunity to ask questions in a no stress setting. Register

4/30, 6:30pm, Thursday

Poem in Your Pocket

Today is national Poem in Your Pocket Day. Put a copy of your favorite published poem in your pocket and bring it to the library. We'll take turns reading our poems and create a "poem pocket" to share them all. Ages 8 and up. Families welcome!

The first 10 people registered will receive a "Poem Patrol" button! Register

English Conversations

During Business Hours

Led by trained volunteers, new speakers of English get the chance to practice and develop self-confidence in a welcoming, informal environment.

Groups and one-on-one conversation available. Special times can also be arranged.

Please call 609-698-3331 to register or stop by circulation desk.