

55-153. FILING OF COMBINED APPLICATIONS.

Nothing set forth in this Article shall prevent any developer from submitting preliminary and final major site plan applications simultaneously, provided that all requirements for the submission of each application separately have been met. The municipal agency shall then determine if they wish to process the applications simultaneously.